Your guide to our job offer options

indeed flex

We recommend using the Maximise Fulfilment toggle alongside these options to drive best chances of fulfilment

Using the options strategically busy periods.

When not using Let Flex do the work, turn on the Maximise Fulfilment toggle After the shift, drive worker retention by rating any new workers five stars - this adds them to your worker pool

Choose your preferred job offer type

The Maximise Fulfilment toggle:

If it gets to five days before your shift and you haven't hit the necessary fulfilment, your offer option will automatically update to Let Flex do the work. If you've posted less than 6 days before the shift - the transition happens even faster.
